How to survive... in a Catholic School

How to Survive Working in a Catholic School

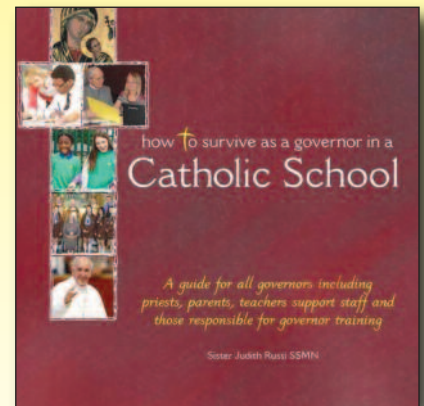

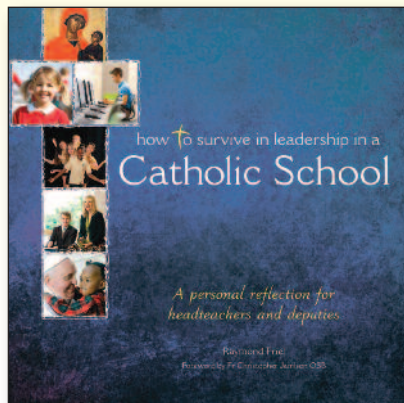

From the forward by Bishop Malcolm McMahon OP: "By helping them to understand that each person, young or old, is a child of God and precious in his sight, this excellent book will help priests, governors, teachers and parents to understand their role in supporting our Catholic schools and their mission."

£6.95 each / Order ref: RP4043
Paperback | 8" x 8" | 88 pages
Colour illustrated

How to Survive in Leadership in a Catholic School

The stress and strain that a Catholic head experiences is undeniable so one chapter is dedicated to looking at how one can achieve a sustainable work-life balance so that you can not only survive but thrive. Raymond Friel does not profess to know all the answers nor does he offer his school as a blueprint for success. He recognises that all heads, including himself, are involved in an ever-changing environment where flexibility, humility and faith are vital, not only to success but survival.

Celebrating

The Lectionary 2018–2019

A Supplemental Lectionary-Based Resource

Each Celebrating the Lectionary session is easy-to-use requires little to no preparation and can be easily adapted to meet the unique needs of a group. Each session takes approximately 15–20 minutes and requires no student books or special materials, maximizing both time and budget. Celebrating the Lectionary will provide groups with a deeper understanding of Scripture, the liturgy and the teachings of the Catholic faith. Following the school calendar, weekly sessions are available for each Sunday and Holyday of Obligation from August 5th, 2018, through to July 28th, 2019. Introductions are provided for each liturgical season, with suggestions for preparing the liturgical environment and transitioning from one season to the next.

A Child's Book of the Mass

One of the best liturgical-catechetical Mass books for young children. The writers have done an exceptional job of presenting the rituals of the Mass in a way that will engage children and enable them to reflect at their own level on the meaning of the parts of the Mass. Also throughout the text, children are presented with questions that will draw them into participation in the Mass and help them develop a Eucharistic spirituality.
