

McCRIMMON'S RESOURCES for Schools

What we see in a Catholic Church

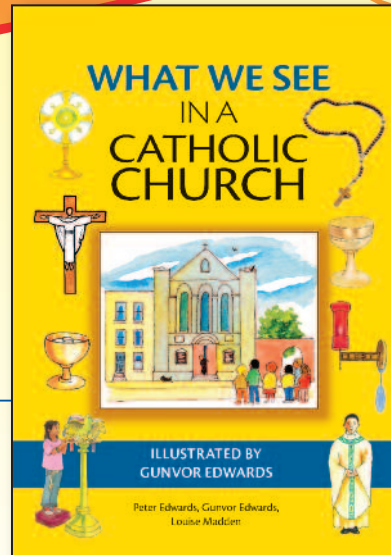

Illustrated by Gunvor Edwards
Compiled by Peter Edwards & Louise Madden

“Why do we dip our fingers in water?”
“Why do we kneel down?”

Anyone who has been asked questions by a child in church will find this book an invaluable help!

Charmingly illustrated by Gunvor Edwards, it enables children to identify and understand the artefacts and actions which are used in our liturgies (particularly during Mass). It introduces them to the riches of our Church Year through the liturgical seasons and the colours used to represent them.

Ideal for parents, teachers and catechists engaged with children in key stages 1 & 2 (5 – 11 years), it includes a helpful 4 page pull-out colouring/activity sheet to reinforce the names of the items we use in church, and their purpose.
