Holy Communion of the Sick

A participation aid for lay ministers
This booklet contains two rites for the communion of the sick:

The first is to be used in normal circumstances, in the homes of the sick with, where possible, their families and friends gathered around them.

The second is for use in hospitals and institutions where there are many communicants to visit and there is little time for each visit.

The Book of the NAMES OF THE DEAD Second Edition

This beautifully bound volume featuring a gold embossed cover, that matches other ritual editions, for a place of reverence in the parish. The title has space to inscribe the name of your parish and the years when this book was used to record names.

There are also lines on the pages themselves on which parishioners may write the names of their loved ones.

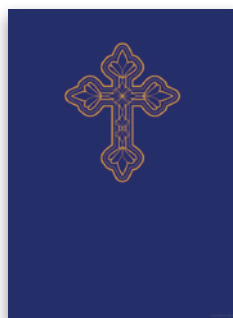

Beautifully inscribed on these pages are English quotations from the Order of Christian Funerals. These poetic texts may be a source of inspiration and comfort during times of grief.

Carefully prepared in its dimensions, paper, binding and art to be beautiful and worthy of its task. In most parishes, this one volume will be large enough to receive names over many years.

DAILY BREAD OF THE WORD Reflections on the Weekday Lectionary Readings

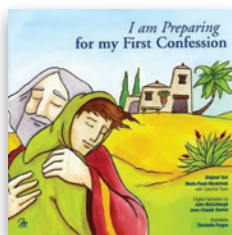

Daily Bread of the Word: Reflections on the Weekday Lectionary Readings is an English translation of Cardinal Albert Vanhoye's reflections on the daily readings of lectionary, Il Pane Quotidiano della Parola: Commento alle letture feriali della Messa ciclo I e II (Daily Bread of the Word: A Commentary on the Daily Readings of the Mass, Year I and Year II).

World-famous scripture scholar Cardinal Albert Vanhoye, S.J., provides insightful and well-grounded exegesis of selected daily Mass readings in a prayerful reflective spirit. It is an excellent prayer resource for priests and deacons. It is also an excellent resource for those called to preach during the week, as well as lay people interested in delving deeper into the exegesis of the daily on the Mass readings.
