CAPTURING HOPE

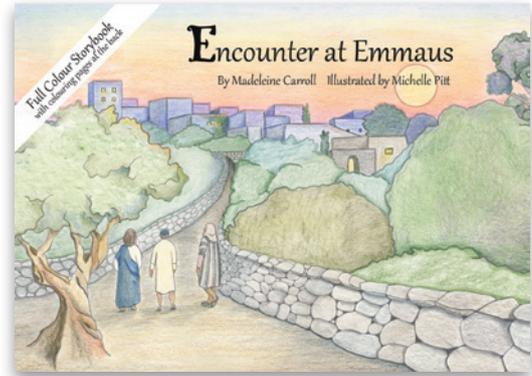

"Then she turned and stumbled back up the path, bumping into a figure bending over fresh flowers, and delighting in them. The gardener! He must have seen something! As she began to ask him, he suddenly turned and spoke her name. Hope flooded back. Joy flooded in. She knew that voice. And when she told the good news to the Apostles later that day, she realised that despair would never capture her heart again." Experience Mary Magdalene's heartache, and then her joy in this beautiful retelling of the Easter story.

BREEZE and FLAMES

"The Romans paced the streets with more ferocity, and the Pharisees and Sadducees were even more determined to ferret out the followers of the Christ. So the fearful followers stayed silent and concealed..."

In this story, set after the Easter joy of Our Lord's resurrection, we experience the despondency and confusion of the Apostles, but then, later, their joyous zeal as the Holy Spirit descends upon them at Pentecost, and fills them with his courage and enthusiasm to spread the Gospel.
