CATHOLIC MARRIAGE: A PASTORAL AND LITURGICAL COMMENTARY

Edward Foley, Capuchin, General Editor

Hardcover, 6 x 9, 192 pages
978-1-61671-507-6
Order code: CMPL $29.95
E-book: $23.95

Catholic Marriage: A Pastoral and Liturgical Commentary is a collection of essays by scholars and practitioners on the rites, spirituality, history, theology, and pastoral practice surrounding the Sacrament of Matrimony in the Roman Catholic Church. Those who minister to engaged couples and teach the sacrament will appreciate the accessible approach to the meaning of Christian marriage and how that is and has been expressed in the rites of the Church and cultural customs.

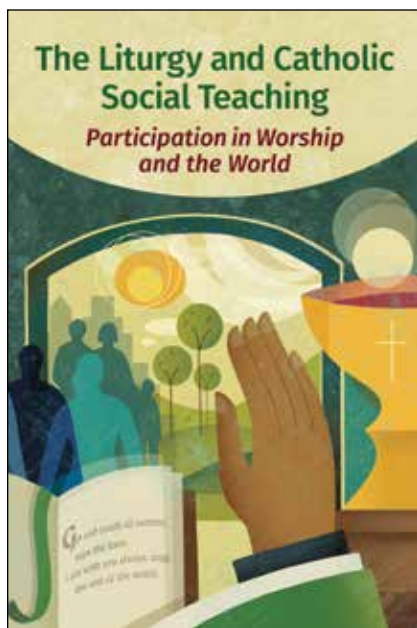

James and Evelyn Whitehead open the book with their essay "Promises to Keep: A Spirituality of Christian Marriage." Kimberly Hope Belcher offers "A Theology of Marriage." The collection then focuses on the marriage rites themselves. Anne McGowan presents "Committed in Christ: A Historical Overview of Christian Marriage Rites." Gilbert Ostdiek, OFM, offers the "Evolution and Translation of the 2016 Marriage Rite." Edward Foley and Richard Fragomeni focus on "The Marriage Rites: An International Perspective."

Turning toward the pastoral aspects of the celebration of marriage, Paul Covino shares his wisdom in "Preparing the Wedding, Preparing for Marriage." Diana Macalintal explores "Mystagogy of Marriage." Timone Davis teams with Ed Foley to reflect on "Preaching at Weddings." Jennifer Kerr Budziak joins Richard Fragomeni in considering "Music in the Celebration of Marriage: Reflections on Best Practices." Finally, Patrick R. Lagges presents "Canonical Reflections on the Order of Celebrating Matrimony."

"Occasioned by the recent publication of the new translation of the Order of Celebrating Matrimony, this comprehensive collection of essays by some of the most renowned practical theologians of our time is unique for its attention to both liturgical and pastoral aspects; overall, it renews the crucial conviction that marriage is central to God's saving mission in Christ to the world. Both scholarly and readable, Catholic Marriage: A Pastoral and Liturgical Commentary will be an excellent resource for those who develop and teach in preparation and renewal programs, for theology students, and for those who minister to those who are living out this daily sacrament or preparing to do so."

Catholic social teaching guides us in how we are to live the Gospel in today's world. Liturgy forms us in these teachings and sends us out into the world to give witness to the Gospel. Organized by the seven themes of Catholic social teaching as developed by the United States bishops, this resource explores the intimate connection between liturgy and Catholic social teaching. It provides insights for parish teams on how Catholics might better live what it is we celebrate each time we gather to worship God and express more fully, consciously, and actively what it means to be in right relationship with God and the world. With questions for discussion and reflection following each thematic chapter, worship teams, parish councils, and peace and justice committees will be able to evaluate and improve parish liturgical practices and ministerial outreach as rooted in Catholic social teaching. With penitential services organized by each of the seven themes, this resource also provides parishioners with the means to examine their own consciences, make acts of reparation, and resolve to be more committed to following the teachings of the Church. The Liturgy and Catholic Social Teaching is sure to help build a world that more closely reflects the love and mercy, justice, and peace of God.

The prayer services found in this book may also be downloaded as a PDF. Additional questions for discussion are also provided online for young adults.

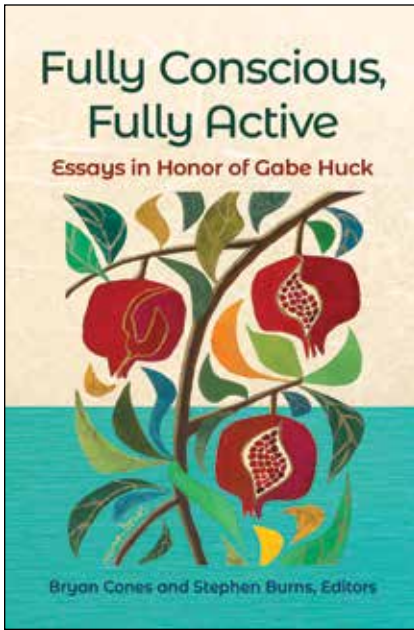

"This inviting and accessible book brings together a wealth of experts concerned with strengthening the links between our worship of God in the liturgy and our service to God in society as articulated by Catholic social teaching. The questions for discussion at the end of each chapter will be particularly helpful for parish leaders and groups seeking to show the transformative power and potential of both the liturgy and Catholic social teaching. Highly recommended."

—James Martin, SJ, Jesuit priest and author of Jesus: A Pilgrimage

"What joy to have our well-kept secret of Catholic Social Teaching woven into the sacramental liturgies of our Church. My heart rejoiced at the authors lifting up our teaching and making practical how to weave it into the rhythm of our liturgies. Oh please! Read this book. USE IT!! We need to enliven our liturgies with the fullness of faith in these challenging times."

Essays in Honor of Gabe Huck

Bryan Cones and Stephen Burns, editors

Paperback, 6 x 9, 176 pages

978-1-61671-513-7

Order code: FCFA $24.95

Available December 2019

An ecumenical group of liturgical scholars and practitioners offer a collection of articles on the effect the work of Gabe Huck has had on liturgical thought and renewal throughout the Christian denominations of the west, with particular focus on the assembly, word and song, and the human person at prayer. The authors then look forward to continuing development of these ideas in their own fields. Gabe Huck was the director of LTP from 1977 to 2001. Under his leadership, it became an important source of liturgical education and formation. In his own writing, he linked the renewal of the liturgy with the work of justice, a link he continues to pursue in his life.

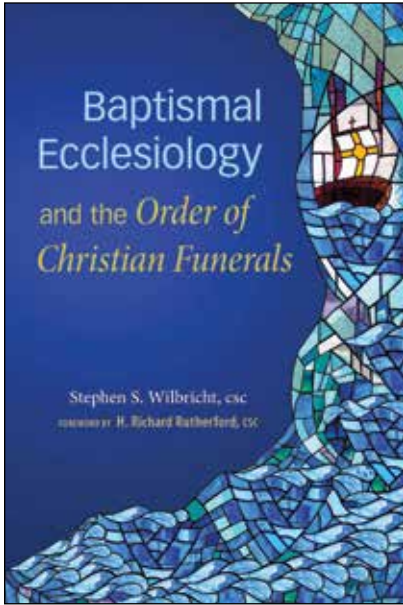

Contributing authors include Antonio Alonso, Lorraine S. Brugh, Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, Eileen D. Crowley, PhD, Rev. Mark Francis, CSV, Kim Harris, Gabe Huck, Theresa Kubasak, Timothy Matovina, Gail Ramshaw, Robert Rosser, Don Saliers, Frank Senn, Juan Sosa, Benjamin M. Stewart, and Paul Turner.

STEPHEN BURNS is a presbyter in the Church of England and teaches liturgical and practical theology at the University of Divinity, Melbourne, Australia. He is also an international research consultant at the Queen's Foundation, Birmingham.

BRYAN CONES is a presbyter in the Episcopal Church, a former book editor at Liturgy Training Publications in Chicago, Illinois, former managing editor and columnist at U.S. Catholic magazine, and a doctoral candidate in liturgy and practical theology at the University of Divinity, Melbourne. He is co-editor (with Stephen Burns) of Liturgy with a Difference (SCM Press, 2019), on the theological significance of human difference in Christian assembly.

“Fully Conscious, Fully Active: Essays in Honor of Gabe Huck both acknowledges the important influence the honoree has had on liturgy in the English-speaking world and furthers his trajectories (and those of his mentor, Robert Hooda) toward future liturgical renewal. Essays on the liturgical assembly and its ministry, the use of word and song in liturgical worship, and explorations of the other senses employed in the embodied character of liturgical ritual are all of consistently high quality. The entire collection is crowned by a classic Huck essay highlighting our need for a liturgy at which we are the world “rehearsing justice, mercy, peace, love and respect for creation. Highly recommended for all who seriously engage the necessary nexus between liturgical worship and living justice and charity.”

BAPTISMAL ECCLESIOLOGY AND THE ORDER OF CHRISTIAN FUNERALS

Stephen S. Wilbricht, csc

Foreword by H. Richard Rutherford, csc

Paperback, 6 x 9, 224 pages
 978-1-61671-443-7
 Order code: BECF $21.95
 E-book: $17.95

Throughout this work, Fr. Stephen S. Wilbricht, csc, emphasizes the link between Baptism and death, assisting Christians in grasping who we are called to be in this life as disciples and who we are promised to become in eternal life as saints. As the author points out the centrality of baptismal identity to the funeral liturgy, he makes apparent that the union established at Baptism continues until all reach Christ. Such an appreciation for life in the Body of Christ will help the community recognize both their responsibilities at the death of a member and the union that remains with that member as all journey to the divine. Wilbricht explores the Church’s theology of Baptism and death, and provides pastoral suggestions that will encourage communities to carry out their commitment to care for the grieving and bury the dead.

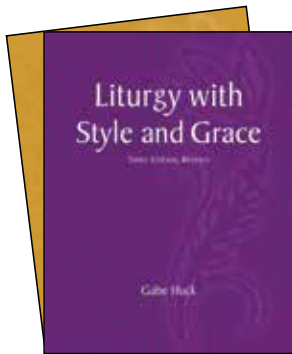

STEPHEN S. WILBRICHT, csc, is an associate professor at Stonehill College, Easton, MA. His doctorate in sacred theology is from the Catholic University of America. He is the author of The Role of the Priest in Christian Initiation (LTP, 2017), His Mercy Endures Forever (LTP, 2016), Rehearsing God's Just Kingdom: The Eucharistic Vision of Mark Searle (Liturgical Press, 2013).

“As Baptismal Ecclesiology and the Order of Christian Funerals draws upon the best that the Church has to offer, including Lumen gentium and Richard Rutherford’s seminal work, it inspires us to enact the theology that those who die in Christ are not obliterated but changed. In this book, Stephen S. Wilbricht, csc, challenges the emphasis on the individual that occurs at funerals, in death-denial, and in one-sided treatment of death. He then inspires teachers, pastors, catechists, and liturgists to enable the baptized to take their places in caring for the dying, the deceased, and the grieving. He shows that Baptism initiates us into ‘the Church’s pilgrimage towards the heavenly banquet.’ This much needed and timely work will re-member the ecclesia to the fulfillment of their paschal identity.”

—Susan Marie Smith, PhD, author of Christian Ritualizing and the Baptismal Process: Liturgical Explorations toward a Realized Baptismal Ecclesiology (Eugene, OR: Pickwick Publications, 2011)

“Stephen Wilbricht’s clearly written chronological account of Catholic funerary beliefs and practices proves, once again, the advice I received from my earliest theological mentor: Nothing helps advance the reform and renewal of the sacramental-liturgical life of the church like wider and deeper historical knowledge. Fr. Wilbricht gently but firmly challenges the individualism dominating contemporary ministry to the dying, dead, and bereaved as he demonstrates the gospel treasures yet to be realized in the genuinely communal nature of the Order of Christian Funerals. My own teaching, writing, and preaching will be enhanced by this theologically sound and pastorally compassionate elucidation of the symbols, rites, and helpful gestures meant to empower the local church community in ushering a fellow member of Christ’s body through the passage of death—a life’s journey begun at baptism.”

—Bruce T. Morrill, SJ, author of Divine Worship and Human Healing: Liturgical Theology at the Margins of Life and Death

This unique reference book provides concise definitions for words, names, and titles that practitioners and students of contemporary Roman Catholic liturgy may encounter. Father Dennis Smolarski, SJ, and Monsignor Joseph DeGrocco have expanded and updated the dictionary from Father Smolarski's classic work Liturgical Literacy: Anamnesis to Worship (Paulist Press, 1990) to provide an invaluable resource for clergy, pastoral ministers, liturgy directors, liturgical musicians, seminarians, students, and others having an interest in or responsibility for the liturgy.

"This book responds to one of our most pressing needs in the Church today – catechesis and literacy. Dennis Smolarski is well known for his careful expertise and ability to write about liturgy with clarity and crispness. His current work should serve us well into the future."

—John F. Baldwin, SJ, Boston College School of Theology and Ministry

"Every human endeavor of a certain complexity develops a technical language to facilitate its work. The liturgy is no stranger to this general rule. Dennis Smolarski's helpful Glossary of Liturgical Terms roams from "ablution" to "zucchetto" in defining these sometimes arcane technical terms. Associated primarily with Roman Rite liturgy, his succinct definitions are trustworthy, helpful and synthesize a vast amount of information."

UNFOLDING SACRED SCRIPTURE

How Catholics Read the Bible

Michael Cameron

Paperback, 5 7/8 x 8 1/2, 144 pages
978-1-61671-244-0
Order code: LBUSS $9.95
E-book: $7.95

Unfolding Sacred Scripture: How Catholics Read the Bible invites readers into the Catholic practice of reading Scripture. The author explains the Catholic understanding of the Bible as the revealed and sacred Word of God, discusses how Catholics interpret the Bible, including the idea of reading Scripture with the community, and demonstrates ways the reader can participate in this practice. Although many Catholics are familiar with the Lectionary readings proclaimed at Mass, many do not yet feel fully comfortable with the Bible itself (from which passages are selected for liturgy.) Only by knowing the major stories, characters, and overall timeline can one fully appreciate the readings or experience the delights of regularly engaging with the Word of God.

Order code: LBWLM $9.95
E-book: $7.95

It explains what a Lectionary is, how it developed over the centuries, and how our current Lectionary grew out of the Second Vatican Council and differs from previous ones. In engaging language, Regina Boisclair explains why readings are chosen and combined, exploring the various implications of those choices. She especially highlights how, in harmony with the liturgical year, the Lectionary presents Bible selections that unfold Christ's Paschal Mystery. She also discusses the ecumenical impact of the Catholic Lectionary, concluding with an explanation of the physical aspects of the Lectionary's layout and an in-depth tour of the four volumes. This book includes quotes from Church documents, charts, a glossary, and suggestions for further reading.

READING CHURCH LATIN

Techniques and Commentary for Comprehension

HILLENBRAND BOOKS
Paperback, 6 x 9, 256 pages
978-1-59525-042-1
Order code: HRCL $22

Reading Church Latin is an essential resource for acquiring a basic reading knowledge of ecclesiastical Latin. Upon completion of the lessons within, students should be able to both grasp the basic meaning of an untranslated Latin text and competently compare a translated text to its original.

"[This book] starts with real Latin texts, and builds the student's knowledge of morphology and syntax naturally upon the study of those texts. It is designed [for] theology students. . . ; but the book would also be useful for busy priests learning to say Mass in Latin, or for laypeople who desire to understand the Latin Mass."

This second edition of David Fagerberg's groundbreaking work seeks to distinguish liturgical theology from a general theology of worship.

"Amid the manifold and complex interaction between liturgy and theology David Fagerberg stresses the way in which the worshipping congregation intellectually, spiritually, and practically processes its encounters with the living God, and this he calls 'primary theology.' Familiar with the classic texts and the surrounding literature, the author here makes a thoughtful and vigorous contribution to an ancient topic but also to a discussion that has been taking place since the Second Vatican Council, and not only in the Roman Catholic Church."

THE MYSTERY OF MARRIAGE

Perry J. Cahall

HILLENBRAND BOOKS
Hardcover, 6 x 9, 512 pages
978-1-59525-040-7

Incorporating the rich insights found in St. John Paul II’s Theology of the Body, Dr. Cahall offers a theology of marriage that incorporates the biblical, systematic, pastoral, and historical traditions which have shaped our understanding of this sacrament.

“After twenty-five years in the daily practice and teaching of canon law—with roughly half of that work being focused on marriage issues—I may say without exaggeration that it takes rather a lot to teach me something new about the Church and marriage. But Dr. Perry Cahall’s The Mystery of Marriage does just that. Cahall demonstrates a solid command of the astonishing variety of sources that make up Church teaching on marriage. [His] study rewards not only selective, topical consultation, it also warrants a cover-to-cover reading.”

THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS

A Search for an Acceptable Notion of Sacrifice

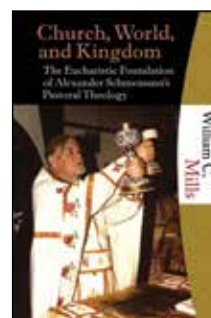

Michael McGuckian, SJ

HILLENBRAND BOOKS
Paperback, 6 x 9, 144 pages
978-1-59525-007-0
Order code: HSCMS $12.95

In this engaging study, Rev. Michael McGuckian, SJ, argues that "the concept of sacrifice is central to the whole vision of faith." Exploring traditional accounts of the sacrifice of the Mass in the writings of the Church Fathers, along with those of a variety of liturgists and theologians from throughout Church history, Rev. McGuckian proposes a tripartite view of the liturgy in which the Offertory, Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion are understood in light of traditional Old Testament accounts of the three-part model of sacrifice.

"Fr. McGuckian's tripartite view of the Mass offers every member of the People of God an active role in the joyous celebration of Christ's death and Resurrection. Thoughtful Catholics will find in this short study a great deal to nourish their faith."

William C. Mills

HILLENBRAND BOOKS
Paperback, 6 x 9, 144 pages
978-1-59525-038-4
Order code: HCWK $18

World-renowned Eastern Orthodox priest, pastor, professor, and theologian, the late Alexander Schmemmann continues to be recognized for his major contributions to the field of liturgical theology. Yet, as William C. Mills reminds us, Schmemmann's contributions hardly end there. A close examination of Schmemmann's writings reveal that some of his work also offers significant contributions to the field of pastoral theology, an important area of theology which, for Schmemmann, is intimately connected to the liturgy. In this study, Mills reveals the ways in which, for Schmemmann, the liturgy and the sacraments provide the essential sources for pastoral care. In Schmemmann's pastoral theology, the Eucharist serves as the source for all reflection, becoming the focal point for understanding the pastoral nature of the liturgy itself.

DINING IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD
The Origins of the Eucharist in the Gospel of Luke
 Eugene LaVerdiere, SSS

Paperback, 6 x 9, 240 pages
 978-1-56854-022-1
 Order code: DINING $15.95

In Dining in the Kingdom of God, LaVerdiere delves into the origins of the Eucharist as revealed in the Gospel of Luke. As readers journey through the Lukan tradition of noon meals, Sabbath dinners, banquets, and even of meeting and dining with a stranger on the road to Emmaus, LaVerdiere demonstrates how the origins of the practice and theology of Eucharist are revealed alongside the presence of Christ at various moments in the Gospel.

“A meal is not so much about food as it is about people. Blessings and prayers, liturgical and non-liturgical, have to do with the people who have come together to share the meal. That is what we hear in the words of Jesus.”

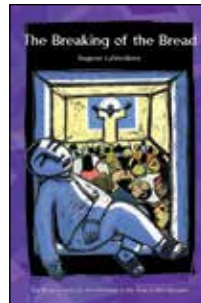

—From the Preface

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD
The Development of the Eucharist according to Acts
 Eugene LaVerdiere, SSS

Paperback, 6 x 9, 256 pages
 978-1-56854-148-8
 Order code: ACTS $12

In The Breaking of the Bread, LaVerdiere first introduced Luke’s Gospel as a chronicle of Jesus’ journeys and meals along the way to Jerusalem. In this volume, LaVerdiere continues that line of thought with the Acts of the Apostles, where Luke continues to narrate the story of the meals and hospitality found in the life of the early Church. With LaVerdiere’s eloquent and accessible scholarship, readers will rediscover the origins of both the practice and theology of the Eucharist.

“Seeing Jerusalem and Rome through Luke’s eyes, dining with Jesus and breaking bread with the early communities, we live the feast wherever we go for the rest of our lives. . . . The moveable feast of Jerusalem and Rome stays with us even ‘to the ends of the earth’ (1:8).”

THE VIRGIN MARTYRS

A Hagiographical and Mystagogical Interpretation

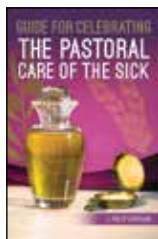

Michael J.K. Fuller

HILLENBRAND BOOKS
Paperback, 6 x 9, 192 pages
978-1-59525-022-3
Order code: HVM $24

In this incredibly innovative work, Rev. Michael Fuller examines the various interpretative approaches employed by those who study the lives of the saints. Adopting the stories of the virgin martyrs as his hermeneutical lens, Fuller assesses the merits of a contextual, literal, allegorical, anagogical, and tropological reading of these stories and legends. He retrieves the catechetical context in which the lives of the saints were originally shared and proposes a more holistic approach to reading and interpreting the medieval legends of the saints for twenty-first century Christianity, arguing that these stories will only remain relevant as long as they are understood in the liturgical and sacramental contexts in which they were always shared.

The Preparing Parish Worship™ series combines a theological and historical overview with practical advice to provide the perfect addition to any liturgy course, whether for seminarians or lay ministers. Each book in the series offers valuable insight into the ways priests, parish staff, catechists, liturgists, liturgical ministers, deacons, and music directors can all collaborate to shape reverent and inviting liturgies. Added as supplemental reading, or a primary text depending on the subject, these books will equip any student of the liturgy with the practical tools they'll need to prepare worship in their parish communities.

Liturgy with Style and Grace

Third Edition, Revised

Gabe Huck
