Guide for Celebrating Worship of the Eucharist outside Mass, Second Edition

John Thomas Lane, sss

Praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass has been a part of Catholic tradition for centuries. This practice leads us to a deeper appreciation of Christ's presence in our lives and to fuller participation in the Mass. This resource provides pastoral guidance for connecting Eucharistic devotions to the liturgy and for preparing celebrations that integrate Scripture, music, and the full participation of the assembly. It has been updated to correspond to the new translation of Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharistic Mystery outside Mass.

Preaching and Catholic Social Teaching

A Vision of the Reign of God

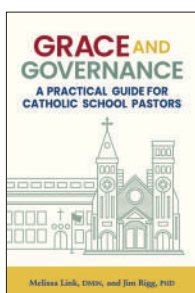

Edited by Michael E. Connors, CSC

Faith is nurtured when the preacher assists the hearer to envision God's kingdom, to see with the mind's eye the redemption and salvation wrought through the paschal mystery, to feel being grasped by absolute and unconditional Love.

This collection of essays seeks to connect preaching and Catholic social teaching by fertilizing the imaginations of preachers with visions of the reign of God. It provides practical and accessible ways to integrate the seven themes of Catholic social teaching into homilies so that the members of your assembly will be constantly challenged and inspired to devote their lives to charity and justice, thus building the kingdom of God in the here and now.

Grace and Governance

A Practical Guide for Catholic School Pastors

Melissa Link, DMIn, and Jim Rigg, PhD

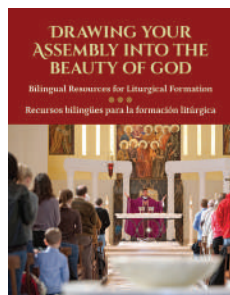

The pastor is an essential and irreplaceable part of the parish school. His presence, care, and pastoral leadership is an invaluable part of what makes Catholic schools unique, and it allows schools to live out Christ's call to evangelize. This book provides parish pastors with specific guidelines on how best to lead and support a parish Catholic school. Acknowledging that pastors are exceptionally busy overseeing all ministries and functions of a parish, this resource enables pastors to engage in the faith life of the school community in the most appropriate and important ways.

While this resource is written specifically for pastors and associate pastors, diocesan leaders, superintendents, principals, school boards, and others who work collaboratively to support pastors in their efforts to grow the Church through the ministry of Catholic education will appreciate the guidance it provides.

Drawn into the Beauty of God

Our Participation in the Liturgy

Corinna Laughlin

Rising incense. Embroidered vestments. Harmonic singing. Dignified presiding and serving. There are so many aspects of the Catholic liturgy that we find beautiful, and these experiences help us catch a glimpse of heavenly realities. As a member of the assembly, our own participation also contributes to the beauty of the liturgy. This booklet explores our own intentional and prayerful participation in the liturgy and how it contributes to the beauty of the celebration for the entire assembly. Our active, prayerful participation can draw us—and others—more deeply into the Mystery that gathers us, nourishes us, and sends us forth in love and service.

The Prayer of St. Francis

A Call to Worship and Love

Meredith Dean Augustin

St. Francis is one of the most beloved saints, and the prayer attributed to him calls us to embody the peace, charity, and justice that Francis lived and preached. In The Prayer of St. Francis: A Call to Worship and Love, journey with St. Francis through each stanza of his prayer and how it connects to the liturgy.

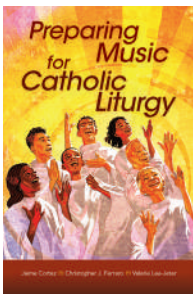

While providing biographical information about St. Francis, this resource reflects spiritually on how his prayer is profoundly connected to the meaning of the Mass. By reflecting on St. Francis' life, his prayer, the penitential act, the universal prayer, the sign of peace, the sharing of holy Communion, and the dismissal, you will come to a deeper appreciation and understanding of the Mass and the discipleship we are all called to live out in the world. This affordable resource is perfect for individual reflection, faith formation groups, or for the entire assembly.

Preparing Music for Catholic Liturgy

Jaime Cortez, Christopher J. Ferraro, and Valerie Lee-Jeter

Music gives the liturgy a more dignified expression of praise for God, its texts reflect our Catholic beliefs, and the shared prayer unifies the faithful as one Body in Christ.

Music ministers have an important role as people of prayer. And in that role, they must know how to select music that is liturgically appropriate, pastorally accessible, and of high musical quality. This resource provides a simple overview of the meaning of the liturgy and the role music plays in the liturgical rites. Grounded in the liturgical documents, it will help diverse communities of faith participate through singing the Mass and sacramental rites of the Church.

Our Hearts Were Burning Within Us

A Pastoral Plan for Adult Faith Formation in the United States

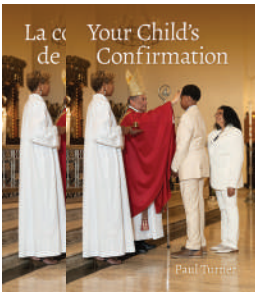

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

We all participate in the Church's mission of proclaiming the Good News of Jesus to the world. In this statement, the bishops present a pastoral plan to help Catholics advance in their role as disciples, by awakening a renewal in the ministry of adult faith formation and helping all to grow to the full maturity of Christ. In four parts, the plan examines the challenges and opportunities faced today, the key qualities of a mature faith, the principles and approaches for providing sound adult faith formation, and the critical roles of parish leadership and diocesan support.

Glory in the Cross

A Journey through the Paschal Triduum

Corinna Laughlin

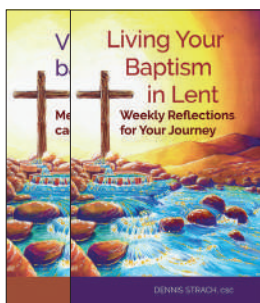

The Paschal Triduum is the heart of the liturgical year. This sacred season brings us more deeply into the life, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ—the Paschal Mystery. This inspiring booklet provides a spiritual journey through the Three Days by exploring the rituals that take place on Holy Thursday evening, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday. The questions at the end of each short chapter will help readers to glory in our Lord's Cross and live it in their lives.

Living Your Baptism in Lent

Weekly Reflections for Your Journey Dennis Strach

Living Your Baptism in Lent: Weekly Reflections for Your Journey is a Lenten reflection book that helps readers foster a deeper relationship with God. Each week, readers are invited to reflect on one of the questions asked before Baptism. These questions, or baptismal promises, shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life and call us to become witnesses of our faith to others, especially to those who are preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil. Each week's reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer. A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included.

Daily Lenten Meditations

Prayerful Reflections from John Paul II

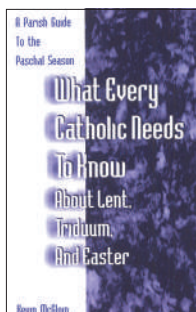

Edited by Fr. Max Polak

This book is a small representation of John Paul II's teaching presented as a help to those who wish to live the Christian Church's season of Lent more meaningfully. It can also meet the interest of inquirers who wish to know something of the Pope's message to Christians and of his hopes for a world in which the respect for truth and the knowledge of God's love brings joy and peace to the hearts of many.

Pope John Paul II's enduring and courageous preaching of the Gospel message throughout the world has meant that an unprecedented number of people have been exposed to its challenging and invigorating influence. People of the most varied cultures and degrees of Christian commitment have listened to this ambassador of Christ as he addressed their needs and concerns while digging deep into the words of Jesus.

New Training Workshop for Liturgical Ministers

The Art of Liturgical Ministry

Collaborate with LTP in providing a spiritually uplifting and educational training event (in-person or virtual) for the liturgical ministers in your parish or diocese.

Together, we will reflect on the connection between full, active, and conscious participation and the ars celebrandi, the art of celebrating. Participants in this workshop will discuss how the spirit and power of the liturgy is impacted by our voices, gestures, and movements, use of signs and symbols, and our own internal preparation.

Contact our training and events team at training@ltp.org or 773-579-4900, ext. 3531 to begin the conversation.

For more information on these events, visit www.ltp.org/virtualworkshops.

Call 800-933-1800 or email orders@ltp.org to bill your parish or institution for any of these offerings.
