

DRAWN TO THE Word OF MARY

DR CLARE CAMPBELL

Preface

Dear Reader,

Welcome to Drawn to the Word of Mary. I have enjoyed bible journalling for years and would like to share my experiences of bible journalling with you. I am a Catholic headteacher in a primary school and I wanted to find a way to combine my love of scripture with my love of art and to inspire that love of the Word of God with the children that I teach. All the illustrations of the Word of Mary have been used with children in my school and tried and tested.

In my school I set up a Drawn to the Word club, where children can illustrate their favourite bible passages. I have compiled some of my favourites for you, for each of the Mysteries of the Holy Rosary and the Visitations of Our Lady. The children have responded really well to learning about the Word of Mary in this way. Through the therapeutic act of drawing and colouring, it gives them a different way to pray, where they can ruminate on the Word of Mary. The children love hearing that Mary herself may have spoken these words over 2000 years ago. I became interested in the visitations of Mary as a child and I wanted to find a way to honour and praise Mary Our Mother in Heaven through art and praise. I hope you enjoy Drawn to the Word of Mary.

God bless, Clare Campbell
