

DRAWN TO THE Word OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

DR CLARE CAMPBELL

Preface

Dear Reader,

Welcome to Drawn to the Word. I have enjoyed bible journalling for years and would like to share my experiences of bible journalling with you. I am a Catholic headteacher in a primary school and I wanted to find a way to combine my love of scripture with my love of art and to inspire that love of the Word of God with the children that I teach. All the illustrations of the Word of God have been used with children in my school and tried and tested.

In my school I set up a Drawn to the Word club, where children can illustrate their favourite bible passages. I have compiled some of my favourites for you, for each of the books of the Old Testament. The children have responded really well to learning about the Word of God in this way. Through the therapeutic act of drawing and colouring, it gives them a different way to pray, where they can ruminate on the Word of God. The children love hearing Jesus himself may have spoken these words in the temple over 2000 years ago. Sometimes I will use the words from the readings or the gospel on Sunday, and the children delight in hearing that these words will have been spoken at masses in churches all over the world. I hope you enjoy Drawn to the Word.

God bless, Clare Campbell
